

Alta Vista Center for Autism

The Art and Science of Effective Intervention

Center Based Programs

Early Childhood

Elementary

Day Treatment

Therapeutic Recreation

Year Round Community Services

Home Programs

Assessments

Consultations

Speech and Occupational Therapy

Summer 2007

June 5 – August 10

3 Sessions, 3 weeks each

The Center for Autism is an assessment and treatment center for children with autism spectrum disorders, including Asperger's syndrome, pervasive developmental disorders and those with related social and communication needs.

2695 S. Jersey Street, Denver, CO 80222
303-759-1192

Alta Vista Center for Autism

The Art and Science of Effective Intervention

Summer 2007 SESSIONS

Sessions A-C	June 5 – August 10	42 days
Session A	June 5 – June 22	14 days
Session B	June 26 – July 19	15 days
Session C	July 23 – August 10	15 days

The Center is closed July 4-6 for Independence Day and June 4th, 25th, and July 20th for staff development.

Summer 2007 PROGRAMS

Early Childhood Program

Making a difference in the early years (18 mos to 5 yrs)

5 days/week

9:00 – 12:00

Transition Program Day treatment for families or schools seeking help with challenging behaviors. (6-18 yrs)

5 days/week

9:00 – 3:30

Elementary Program

For school-aged learners (6-12 yrs)

3 days/week (T/W/Th)

9:00 – 3:30

5 days/week

9:00 – 3:30/9:00-12:00/12:30-3:30

Community Connections Program

Therapeutic recreation in the community. (6-14 yrs)

3 days/week (T/W/Th)

9:00 – 3:30

5 days/week

9:00 – 3:30

The Center for Autism is an approved service agency provider with Colorado Community Center Boards (CCBs). Individuals with Children's Extensive Support (CES) and Family Support Service Programs (FSSP) may utilize funds for our behavioral, center-, and home-based services. Contact your CCB service coordinator for more details.

For registration information, please call Ariel at 303-759-1192 or adefazio@aspennautism.org